Emerald Bridge Is Hit By Brown In Long Controversy

SACRAMENTO—(CNS) — Governor Edmund G. Brown said he believed it would be tragic to mar the beauty of Emerald Bay, at the west end of Lake Tahoe, with a bridge and that he personally favors the high route for an all-weather highway around the west side of the lake.

Brown's remarks came on the long-standing controversy before the California highway commission ever has committed itself. For a number of years there has been a disagreement between highway officials and the state park commission as to the route of a new highway.

The present roadway around Emerald Bay is blocked by snow and slides during most winters. The slide conditions often prevent workmen from attempting to clear the roadway.

Studies of the state division of highways have shown a low route, including a bridge across the mouth of picturesque Emerald Bay, would have to traverse two state parks, the E. L. Bliss and Emerald Bay parks. However, they have shown the low route would be considerably cheaper than a route above the present roadway.

The so-called high route would require considerable distance in snow sheds and tunnels, as well as a bridge connecting the tunnels.

"I personally favor the high route for an all weather highway around Emerald Bay," Brown said. "Of course, the highway commission will make the final decision, but in my opinion it would be tragic to mar the bay with a bridge."

Robert B. Bradford, director of public works and chairman of the highway commission, indicated the highway commission still had an open mind on the subject. However, he said that, "in any case, final construction is a long number of years away. Completion could take 10 years, depending on when the financing becomes available."

Escapee Is Nabbed By Lake Officers

Lawrence V. Brown, 19, who escaped from the Washington Ridge Conservation Camp near Nevada City Saturday was captured near Kings Beach early this week by sheriff's deputies. His 21 year old companion in the escape, Paul E. Fleming, is still missing.

Robert L. Baham, superintendent of the institute, said the incident was the first in the past six months. The camp has a registration of 53 inmates, he said.

Sheriff's officers captured Brown Sunday less than two hours after Mr. and Mrs. William Bates of Horseshoe Lodge reported their home looted while they were shopping. A shirt and jacket issued to the inmates at the institution were found on the premises and a short time later Brown was arrested while walking on the street at Kings Beach wearing clothing Bates identified as his.

EITHER-SEX HUNT IS PROPOSED IN AREA

California's Department of Fish and Game has recommended 36 controlled or either-sex deer hunts for 1962, including Nevada and Placer Counties, with a total of 14, 285 permits to be issued.

The department's recommendations will be considered at its meeting in Sacramento, April 2. At that time a public hearing will be scheduled for each county involved in a proposed hunt.

The Western Placer and Nevada County hunt is proposed for the first Tuesday through the last Thursday of the regular season and 650 antlerless permits will be issued. At North Tahoe 275 similar permits would be issued for the same period.

Study Of Donner Oil Damage Will Occupy Officials

Game Warden Charles Spillner reported yesterday that although a close watch is being kept at Donner Lake to discover what damage, if any, has been done to the fish life as a result of a considerable amount of diesel oil being accidentally dumped into the water no evidence of loss has been revealed.

In the meantime, company officials who lost the oil charge that the first figures that between 13,000 and 18,000 gallons of the oil drained into the water from a ruptured line above the lake, were exaggerated and that actually only 3,000 were lost.

Spillner and Area Sanitarian Richard Walker announced the larger amount was reported to them by a construction company employe immediately after the pollution was noted.

Spillner said this week that none of the oil had reached the lake's outlet and since the water is covered with ice it is impossible to determine the exact spread.

Several residents served by the Donner Lake Utility Company, whose system was polluted by the oil, report hot water tanks still are steeped with the oil.

Tahoe Chamber Endorses Bonds

KINGS BEACH—At their meeting last week, directors of the Lake Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce endorsed the proposed school bond issue after hearing a talk by John Corbin, superintendent of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District, in which he stressed the necessity for additional classrooms and other facilities.

The board reviewed projects of the past three months and initiated a spring publicity program.

The members also voted unanimously to make the Tahoe Sierra Dog Derby an annual chamber event.

Don Beck, prominent North Tahoe businessman, received two appointments to the chamber. He was elected to an unexpired four year term of office as director and accepted the post of publicity and advertising chairman for the group.

Chamber Votes To Sponsor Regatta At Donner Lake

The Truckee Donner Chamber of Commerce yesterday voted to resume sponsorship of the annual Donner Lake Outboard Regatta which this year will be held July 7 and 8.

The action of the chamber followed a decision by the Donner Lake Volunteer Fire Department to drop the sponsorship after conducting the races for the past four years. The chamber, Manager N. F. Dolley said, realizes the importance of the races and the attending publicity and rather than see them go elsewhere, agreed to handle local arrangements.

This year will mark the 13th that the races have been held here and which annually attracts thousands of visitors to the area.

Dolley will chairman the committee in charge and will call a meeting later this week to work out details.

Daven Morey presided at yesterday's meeting in the absence of President Richard Higgins.

Krohn Is Honored By Organization

Loehr Commended For Quick Decision

H. G. Loehr, chairman of the Nevada County Board of Supervisors, is in receipt of a letter of commendation from Robert D. Montgomery, regional manager of the state department of fish and game, for the cooperation given during the recent emergency at Donner Lake when thousands of gallons of diesel oil were accidentally dumped into the lake endangering the fish life.

"On behalf of the Department of Fish and Game, I wish to thank you and the other members of the Nevada County Board of Supervisors for the commendable and prompt action which you took in the oil pollution at Donner Lake on March 18. We appreciate the fact that although the request was made to you on a Sunday, you were able to obtain telephonic approval of other board members at once authorizing funds for emergency action," the letter said in part.

"For the welfare of the fishlife in the lake it was imperative that the estimated 18,000 gallons of diesel oil which was accidentally discharged into the lake be picked up or cleaned up immediately.

"Fortunately, the Donner Lake Volunteer Fire Department came to the rescue, moving in equipment and manpower and successfully burning a considerable amount of the oil on the surface of the water and ice.

"I am sure the people of the Donner Lake-Truckee area appreciate the fact that their board of supervisors is well capable of rising to the occasion when the welfare of the wildlife is threatened as demonstrated in this instance."

Summer Weather Follows Blizzard; Moisture Normal

Since the blizzard last Thursday and Friday brought 16 inches of new snow to the Truckee district, the weather has moderated and the temperature has risen to the high 50's, with the first real touch of spring welcomed in the area.

Henry Toccalini of the U. S. Forest Service office here, reports the season's precipitation is now only .45 of an inch less than normal for the end of March. This resulted from the 1.28 inches which were recorded during last week's storm, to bring the precipitation for the month to 5.53 inches, compared to the March normal of 4.13. The total for the season is now 26.43, compared to an average of 26.88 inches.

There were 28 inches of snow still on the ground here yesterday, but under a warm sun, which sent the thermometers up to 59 Monday, it is fast disappearing.

Winter sport resort centers report an abundance of snow on the ground to assure good skiing until after Easter and Max Williamson of the Soda Springs Ski Corporation said their facilities will be operating under excellent conditions into May.

New School Buses Ordered By Board

The governing board of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District at the meeting last week voted unanimously to accept the bid of Gillig Brothers of Hayward to supply two new school buses to the district by May 15 at a total cost of $48,765.60.

The bid accepted was the lowest of two submitted for the needed equipment.

The buses will be equipped with a public address system and radio with four inside speakers and all other facilities required by state laws for school buses.

In other action, the board employed Miss Ruth Knight as district nurse effective March 1; Mrs. Phyllis Piersall as a teacher in the Truckee elementary school; Jess Brown and Robert Beaverson as bus drivers.

Local Patrolman Is Cited For Action In Cattle Accident

California Highway Patrol Officer Robert S. Horton, 40, of Truckee substation, was awarded a silver medal and commendation by the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for his "humane act of bravery" in destroying 38 cattle trapped in 25-foot snow drifts near Donner Summit.

The presentation was made by Gerald Dalmadge, San Francisco director of field services for the society, in the office of Bradford M. Crittenden, patrol commissioner.

Horton's action was necessitated by an avalanche which carried a cattle truck containing 75 head of cattle off U. S. 40 on Donner grade the evening of March 1. The truck fell an estimated 75 feet, throwing most of the cattle in 25-foot drifts. The driver jumped to safety as the truck started to fall.

A heavy snow storm and strong indications that further avalanches might occur prevented action until the next day. High winds, extremely low temperature and the precipitous nature of the terrain

Utility District To Study Water Plan

Manager Francis Longo and Director James McIver of the Truckee Public Utility District were in San Francisco one day last week to confer with the Housing and Finance Agency's Community Facilities Department relative to improvement and expansion of the local water system.

The agency is empowered to provide interest-free funds for the purpose of conducting a long-range program of public works planning, Longo explained

Longo said he would recommend to the board of directors of the district that this method of financing be applied here if possible.

Under the long-range planning, Longo said, it might be possible to bring water to serve this entire region from Summit Lake on Donner, eliminating the present pumping plants and bring the various systems now in operation into one unit.

While this program admittedly will entail a large expenditure, it would eventually provide a system adequate for many years to come, Longo said.

State Officials To Discuss Hunting At Friday Meeting

Sportsmen, business people and in fact everyone interested in perpetuating deer hunting in this district is urged to attend an important meeting at the old Truckee elementary school Friday evening at 7:30 when a number of fish and game department officials will be on hand to discuss the problems and seek methods of solving the decline in the local herds.

Heading the group of state officials will be Robert Montgomery, regional manager, Harvey Russo, in charge of deer management, Inspector Kenneth Hooker and Captain Hilton Bergstrom. President Robert Moore of the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen, sponsor of the meeting, will preside.

The local group has recommended shortening the hunting season or providing a deer refuge and will oppose the proposed antlerless hunt, Director Charles Osburn declared, pointing out the seriousness of the situation.

Twelve members of the sportsmen's organization toured the winter range area of the herds last Sunday and reported an abundance of does but very few bucks. The feed, they found, was well exhausted but the deer are starting their trek back to the higher elevations and all were found to be in excellent condition. The inspection party, led by George Wurst of the state department and Warden Charles Spillner, visited the area north of Verdi.

Shortening the season would materially help in bringing the herd back to normal, Osburn believes, pointing out figures which show a decline in the buck population since the season was extended two weeks in 1959.

These figures show that in 1957, with the one-month season, 277 bucks were validated in Nevada County. In 1958, when the season was extended one week, 369 were killed but in 1959 with a two-week extension the kill total went to 420 and the following year a decline was noted when only 303 were tagged and in 1961 when only 241 were reported. This decline was noted even though there were more hunters.

Placer County showed the same drop after an extension of the season, Osburn reported. There were 252 bucks killed in 1959 when the two weeks were added to the season; 189 the following year and only 110 last year.

A large turnout is required for tomorrow's meeting to provide the state officials with evidence that the situation requires immediate attention.

BLAST CLEARS SNOW OVER DONNER GRADE

A potentially dangerous mountain of snow above Big Shot on Donner grade was removed Friday through the efforts of Monte Atwater and Dick Spillman, avalanche experts with the U. S. Forest Service, who blasted the snow down with their 75mm recoilless rifle.

The barrage was requested by Superintendent Frank Fox of the division of highways to stabilize the snow above Highway 40. As the tons of icy snow crashed to the highway, traffic was delayed for an hour and a half while state rotary plows cleared the grade.

It was feared that the heavy snow above the road would crash down on vehicles if left alone and the shooting removed all dangers, it is believed.

LOCAL STUDENTS TO STUDY AT CORVALLIS

Paul Stromgren and J. C. Roberson will leave school in June a week earlier than other students of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District, not for added vacation, but to travel to Corvallis, Oregon where they have been accepted to take a two week's science course offered by the Junior Engineering and Scientific Summer Institute.

The organization is devoted to helping aspiring young scientists and engineers in deciding their field of study.

Only boys are accepted in the school to be attended by the local students.

DR. WYATT RETURNS TO SERVE SENTNCE

Dr. Thomas D. Wyatt, 63, of Carson City and Crystal Bay, appeared before U. S. Commissioner Gordon Farley at Nogales, Arizona last week and waived extradition to Nevada to serve a prison term.

He was arrested at the Mexico border as he was deported and charged with unlawful flight to avoid confinement.

Wyatt was convicted of attempted abortion in Nevada early last year and was sentenced to one to 2½ years in prison.

He and his wife went to Mexico and became involved in a shooting at Benjamin Hill in the State of Sonora, about 100 miles south of the U. S. border, March 19, 1961.

Dr. Wyatt and his wife were wounded in the gun battle with a man who entered their house trailer and reportedly stole $800 from the couple. The intruder, identifiedd as Jesse William Clark, 51, of Casa Grande, Ariz., was killed in the exchange of shots.

Letter to the Editor

I would like to come out of a long literary lassitude to comment on the naming of the new Pass. It is not my intention to give offense or to argue with anyone, but merely to add a different viewpoint.

As a non native, nauveau Californian, perhaps I still view the situation with a tourist's eye and can offer a new perspective. It is very true that the name Donner carries its share of the romance and history of California to all parts of the United States. It is therefore, very true that people traveling through are usually a bit awe struck and make a point of "going over the Pass." Will they be equally impressed as they whiz by on a four lane ribbon of freeway? I doubt it.

The fact that Donner Pass may only be kept open about 5 or 6 months out of the year will add to its excitement and prestige. People will make a point of driving over to see this treacherous pass that must be closed. It can be believed that here is a place that people sought and even died for. It will have a sense of historical belonging that no new Freeway can duplicate.

The objection has been raised that there is already a Stevens Pass in another state. This should present no real difficulty as there are many names duplicated throughout this country and the addition of the name of the state to the site readily clarifies any confusion. Imagine, though, two Donner Passes—in the same state—and within a yodel and a yoo-hoo of each other.

I am not really supporting the name of Stevens for the Pass, but merely objecting to two Donners. I leave the actual choice of a name to wiser more historically minded heads than mine.

As a closing thought, I feel that if it is our intention to attract and interest the tourist in the original site, then let the tourist come to the mountain. Don't make the error of moving the mountain to the tourist. He won't appreciate it and will feel cheated, when he learns of the deception.

By FRAN COUILLARD

(Apologies to Stevens)

We shall let the time honored, venerable Stevens rest this edition as we are busily checking into his history in a few days. Knowing every nook and craney of the California Department of the State Library in Sacramento and having in my possession a library card to same—I just might be able to find out something that you don't know about Mr. Stevens—though as expressed before, I am sincerely hoping that he shall be left in peace. Of course I am highly amused at the present time by big Reno trying to eat Sparks up, too. And am delighted by the way that Sparks refused to become digested. Says Reno, "you will profit by this eastward movement. When you become known at East Reno not only will yoou naturally profit —but we will send you our overflow." It just kind of gives me a little idea—something like North Donner Summit Pass, or something like that. But, whoa, Fran—you said that you were going to let your developing ulcer rest this issue—and you will, old girl, you will.

So we are prompted to hail and hail our mountain kids in the next few paragraphs.

First we are going to comment on their heartiness. As our hotel lobby is decorated with various offspring of mountain folk every morning whilst they keep warm—awaiting the school bus we frown a bit as the glossy floors, polished by our good night man, become snow spotted and dampish and then we start waving flags. Because we can peek out of our front doors — (not our windows) and watch these little bits working their way down from their various homes in the snow drifts. Waist high they wade out — and some neck high. These children of the snow country think nothing of it. Noses red, cheeks pink, ears nipped, they come in laughing whether it be blizzard, "flurries" or below zero. And we (in their favor) contrast them in our mind with the city kids who hop out of a nice warm bed, warm their little posteriors over the floor furnaces, jump into their jeans and pinafores and walk to the corner for the school bus.

And we guess that this background of stamina makes the Olympic champions of the future. For instance. Have in front of me a racing sheet and it says here—"Levi's Ski Rodeo—Junior Giant Slalom—Sunday, March 18—Donner Ski Ranch—Official Results."

And in part:

GIRLS II: 1st—Patti Kelly. (Remember pretty Patti's promise?) And we are reminded that the week before this Patti came in the lodge with two trophies which delighted her folks so much that her Mom — Jerry — shed a few tears. And we don't know where Patti picked these up — but she was roundly toasted by dining room skiers when she entered that aroma giving atmosphere.

Down further on the page we see:

GIRLS IV: 1st Debbie Zorich and as our eye runs down the last row on this page which means "times"—we are amazed at this little gril's speed. And whilst we cannot say that this is Debbie's first showing we do think that we will term this Debbie's debut—because this black eyed offspring of Bud and Barbara Zorich's has started to "blossom" since this Levi's rodeo result sheet came off the press. Debbie comes from a family of champions. May we predict that her dad—Bud—will have to move his trophy shelf—gathered over his period of years of skiing; take his badge which signifies 16 years as a certified ski instructor and start letting it gather dust whilst he dusts off the shelf for this 12 year old daughter's mounting collection? And may we tell Barbara that the ribbons and trophies that she has won in dog and horse showing during her season as a champion might as well be put in moth balls so that Debbie will have more room for her skiing oscars? And we are awaiting today's results (Sunday the 25th) of the Yuba Sutter Ski Club race at the Ranch and watching Deb's time with timely interest. This youngster at the ripe age of 12—just peeking into her teen age glamour period—has seven years of skiing behind her. We aren't singing about Tommy (Santa Claus Zorich) this trip. We are reserving the right for a futuhe write up—say in about four years from now. Because—and even before he goes to kindergarten—he rides the Jay Bar on the Soda Springs Ski Hill—and spends his day skiing, "all by myself" whilst our city cousins are riding their tricycles and kiddy cars. So — this week we salute Debbie's Debut and watch her blossom.

We attended our first baby shower last Wednesday evening—first, I may say in the light of "couples" being invited, because these invitations were addressed to Mr. and Mrs.—so it wasn't a "hen party" as our ertswhile husbands usually designate them. (Funny—all of the husbands came to the party, too). So it was our first baby shower — husband included. Now after that introduction we will introduce the guests of honor whom many of you do not know but likely will—as they expect to stay on this here mountain for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Juells. Dick works with Bill Vandergrift (who purchased Pratt's Garage at Soda Springs sometime ago). His wife Sandra—Sandy to us—is the expectant one. Said shower was held at Donner Summit Lodge (which has regained its friendly atmosphere since the return of the Ganglers and the Burkeys) George and Henrietta (Henry) Gangler, as usual, the perfect hosts. Think there must have been 40 of us. Furtherest "eastern" on Forty in the Donner Summit area—were Joe and Shirley Boyette of the Ski Inn at Norden. This was also Joe and Shirley's first introduction to the mountain party hounds. Furtherest West were the Kingvale group — like Frank and Kay Zoll and Laura and Jim Cross. And then we in betweeners. Think Sandy's shower was just about the most sensible one we've seen. The Donner Summit Lodge bunch came up with a very modern high chair. The Kingvale contingent with a complete baby bed—and the Soda Springs clique with a fancy stoller with fringe on the top yet.

We can remember when we "pushed" a lot of these mountain events. But we are being superseded by the younger clique. This old hill is being inoculated with young blood. Joe and Shirley of the Ski Inn are in their twenties. Sandy Juells can't vote yet. Bill and Dorothy Cannon of the Soda Springs Lodge—the Vandergrifts—the Zolls, — the Ron Sweets (Pla Vada Garage) the Eli Carders of the Mountain Ski Shop—and we could go on for quite a spell. And how well we were aware of this at the shower. Because the younger set came "cocktail attired"—really—in a snow storm. Whilst we older set sensibly entered the arena of entertainment in our stout boots and stretch pants. (Well—pneumonia ain't good at our ages).

And we have a "house boy" by the name of Terry Harrison whom we have nicknamed Hiawatha—due to his skiing tan, his black hair and his black, black eyes. And nothing but do but a birthday cake for his 21st birthday—could it? So we brought it in in all of its sparkling splendor, sat it on the bar and Terry cut it as he forgot the long haul it was to the time where he could shove out his I. D. card with confidence.

And as we look at our calendar—we forget the equinox storm we just got over and marvel at the rays of the sun. And that makes us think of our springtime in the mountains. And already we are wondering (and in amazement) "skiing season is almost over." And "where did the winter go?" The good, brown faces is what gets me. Whilst the young and hearty ski the slopes—we servers "who only sit and wait" get paler and paler. It is as though the snow gets in our blood stream. And something else, too. These first rays are the best conducive to "cabin fever." You know its kind of amazing—this lodge business, when you think of it. At the beginning of the season one picks a crew. They come from east, west, north and south. It is seldom that any of them have ever seen each other. Then the crew is "put together" under one roof and ex-

TRUCKEE RESIDENTIAL ELECTRIC RATES AMONG THE LOWEST IN THE STATE

Following is the result of an investigation and report of the operations of this District made by Consulting Engineer Edwin Fleischmann of San Francisco, in 1959, at the instigation, by petition, of a group of citizens of Truckee. The report states, that of all communities throughout California served by Private Electric Companies, ranging in population between between 2,500 and 3,000; 16 served by Pacific Gas & Electric Co.; 6 by Southern California Edison Co.; and 4 by California Oregon Power Co.; 3 by San Diego Gas & Electric Co.; and 1 by California Electric Co.; the average cost for Residential Electric Service as compared with Truckee Rates was as follows:

		Private Companies	Truckee PUD
25 KW	Average	$ 1.86	$ 1.22
40 KW	Average	2.56	1.89
100 KW	Average	4.52	4.59
250 KW	Average	7.80	7.20
500 KW	Average	11.00	11.70

This comparison is taken from the Federal Power Commissions listing of "Typical Residential Electric Bills" in California for communities of population of between 2,500 and 3,000. No federal report is made on communities of less than 2,500 in population.

Publicly Owned and Operated Electric Systems are not included in the Federal Report. All such systems are operating in larger populated areas; Truckee being the smallest community in California owning and operating a Publicly Owned Electric System.

Fire Belles of North Lake Tahoe met at Ella Rae Fulton's home in Kings Beach Monday and enjoyed a pot luck supper. Among those present were Beulah Astle, Sophie Levra, Louise Walter, Pat Baker, Frances Gerlits, Ruth Berrum, Marjie Mayhew, Joan Mally, Gloria Frakes, Jean Henry and guests from South Tahoe, Marj De Lallo, Pat Fischer and Ruth Woods. The guests who are members of the South Tahoe organization gave an informal discussion on their activities. Ella Rae reported that the two courses given in first aid has been completed.

Discussion for entertainment for the junior fire department picnic in June was held. The picnic is sponsored by the Elks and Fire Belles assist.

Sophie Levra brought up the suggestion of a Fourth of July celebration. Have been hearing this same suggestion from Ceta Hooper for several weeks now. And why not? Grass Valley is one of the few cities that continues to observe the Fourth of July with old time enthusiasm. Flags, fireworks, hot dogs, lemonade, and a parade. We're for it.

Just talked to Dog Derby Fred (Fred Schultz, manager of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce) and he says he doesn't want to be typed. The Fourth of July idea sounds just great. Will start to work on the idea with promotion chairman, Don Beck, and committee and look out. Flags, bunting, hot dogs, pink lemonade, parade and the fireworks at Tahoe City. Tahoe City has observed the Fourth of July with night fireworks for many years and we can wind up the day's activities supporting their fireworks display. Like?

During my various winter ailments, thanks are due to Dr. Prescott for the loan of crutches, Bev Newell, George and Iris Alerio, Bob and Mae Critchley, Vivian McIntire, Ella Rae Fulton, Louise Walter, Ted and Pearl Draney, Marj Walker, Virginia Casella, and Ceta and Harry Hooper. Friends in need indeed.

Glenn and Barbara Collins of Incline Beach were business visitors to Piedmont last week. Daughter Debbie visited Pearl and Ted Draney during their absence.

Theresa Denton of Kings Beach was hostess to a pot luck lunch and card party which was a benefit for the WSCS. Almost $55 was realized for the group. Mrs. R. B. Davenport won the hand crocheted bedspread which was given by the WSCS. Among those present at the party were Pearl Draney, Bethel Van Tassel, Fran Thompkins, Sophie Levra, Birdie Smith, Wanda Wheeler, Caryl Wilbur, Matilda McEathren, Wanda Brooks, Theresa Sutton, Peggy Nelson, Mae Weathers, Unadel Crawford, Gladys Wilcox, Maxine Polzin, Ruth Lavery, Bern May, Bev Ribal, Adeline Gunkel, Ruth Mizner, Marguerite Ashton, Helen Chanda, Kay Felte, and the hostess.

Mrs. Anthony Ryerson and children, Mary, Peggy and Tony, Jr., have joined husband and father at their Brockway home from Lake Forest, Illinois, for several weeks. House guest is Ellen Foster of Lake Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Parsons and sons of Visalia are newcomers to Kings Beach where they have a home on Tahoe Avenue.

Barbara Kammerer was home from Reno to visit mother, Bev Newell, at Kings Beach.

Spring is SUPPOSED to start on March 20. Weather is almost a taboo subject to residents of this area, and mention of of spring. The night of March 21 brought a snow storm and all day Thursday was a blizzard. Oh well, who wants to plant a garden anyway?

Enjoying ladies day at Alpine Meadows on Tuesday were Maxine Polzin, Bev Ribal, Arlene Larsen, Bern May, Helene Batt, Ann Tiller and Jeanette Palmer.

Talked to Jeanette Palmer of Carnelian Bay. The Riviera Resort Clothes shops will probably be opened the end of April or the first of May.

Noel and Peggy Hulbert were back to their Kings Beach home from winter quarters at Gardnerville for the Dog Derby. Daughter, Penny Frost, was also a weekend visitor with her parents from Reno home.

Tom and Theresa Sutton of Kings Beach were visitors to Jackson for a couple of days last week. Upon their return packed for a trip to Tepuco Hot Springs to escape the snow.

Earl and Carrie Gray have returned to their Kings Beach home after several weeks sojourn at Palm Springs.

Diane Finigan of Kings Beach was a San Francisco visitor last week.

Happy birthday to Tom Sutton of Kings Beach who observed his birthday on March 9. Dinner party at the home of Paul and Edith Mullis was enjoyed by Tom and Theresa in celebration of the occasion.

Tommy Gore of Carnelian Bay spent several days in San Francisco last week on business.

Verdi Ladner of Kings Beach has returned home after a visit to Clayton, New Mexico, where she was a guest of daughter, Burdine Byrd. Thence to Texas where she visited mother, Hollie Houts.

TAHOE BRIEFS

Williams, 26th, Ella Rae Fulton, Paul Adamco and Sophie Levra, all on the first day of spring, and Chuck Bergman on the 28th.

Denny Maas, teacher at the Kings Beach Elementary School, was the speaker at the Optimist Club meeting on Wednesday night. Denny gave a talk illustrated by slides on "Hunting and Firearm Safety." The safety course is required by the state before licenses will be issued for hunting.

Greg Englehard of Crystal Bay was the guest of Harold Tiller at the meeting.

The Reno Optimist Club challenged the local group to a bowling match in Reno which was accepted and will be played on Sunday.

Frances Rockholm, general chairman of the Elmblem Club 49er party announces that the time and place for the affair has been changed. It is now scheduled for Saturday, April 14 at the Capitol in Truckee. Cocktails at 7 with buffet supper to follow. The committee working on the festivities include Velda Farris, Marilyn Fugazi, Jean Calhoun and Betty Vance.

Decorations for the party will be done by Don Ferguson of Kings Beach, who is doing murals depicting the days of '49. Entertainment is in charge of Jean Calhoun and Alice Hall. From all indications the party should be a real fun affair.

Pearl Kientz of Kings Beach visited brother, Judge Homer W. Buckley in Oakland several days last week. Was also a Fremont guest of Mrs. Richard Sharon.

Dorothea Whitley of Kings Beach also visited in Fremont at the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dill.

Pearl and Dorthea met and returned home together after a pleasant visit in the sunny climes. Came back with the blizzard.

Joe and Ann Dolce of Kings Beach visited relatives in San Francisco this past week.

Toastmistress had a luncheon meeting at Bacchi's Inn at Lake Forest Saturday. President Marilyn Fugazi introducing the speaker Ray Smith, planning director of Incline Village.

Candidacy for judge of the Tahoe Judicial District Court has been announced by two Kings Beach residents. Robert A. Fugazi who has held the office since the death of Judge Harry Charrison is seeking reelection. Jack Neugebauer has also announced that he will be a candidate for the office.

Both will be write-in candidates, and both are well known local residents.

Felines met at the home of their president, Marian Mueller, in Kings Beach on Monday for a pot luck supper and business meeting. Present were Chris Hoffman, Louise Francis, Tally Daneri, Marguerite Ashton, Freda Fowler, Joan Oelrich, Wanda Brooks and Marilyn Boatman. Marian's cohostess for the evening was Marguerite Ashton.

Informed by son, Richard, that Dan and Louise Anderson will be returning for the summer about April 15 to Tahoe Vista from Mexico. Dan has operated a boat business there for the past few winters. Friends will welcome their return.

Tom and Hazel James have returned home to Tahoe Vista after a two weeks vacation to San Francisco, Santa Cruz and way points.

Just made a reservation for the opening show in the new theater restaurant at Cal Neva with Sandy Waterman. It seems that requests are pouring in and a sellout is indicated. According to Mr. Waterman progress is on schedule in spite of the blizzard and the owners are extremely happy. Also said that Frank Sinatra is taking a personal interest in the construction and decor, and no doubt will give the project his inspection before long.

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862 . . . the same year that

IN CALIFORNIA, Leland Stanford, the founder of Stanford University, was inaugurated as the eighth governor of California. Throughout the state, folks toasted the event with foaming steins of beer.

For then as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of hospitality to any occasion. Californians have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

DONNER DOINGS

By VIRGINIA O'BEAR

Alright, I confess. Looks like I'll have to admit that last week I had a very bad case of cabin fever or some kind of "I'm going to get away from here blues." Since the sun has been shining the past few days and the mud is drying up in the driveway and the ice is breaking away near the shore of beautiful Donner Lake, I'm in better spirits. Yes sir, there's no place like Donner despite our water troubles and everything else.

Our daughter, Jennifer, celebrated her 12th birthday March 23 at home with just the family. She reminded us that in just one more year she will be a teenager and in return we reminded her not to be in any hurry to grow up. It's those early years you look back on after you are grown and say "those were the good old days," with mom and dad providing security.

Harold Carles of Donner Lake and Los Gatos, spent a few days at Donner last week returning home Sunday. His mother, Mrs. Margaret E. Carles was in the Spotswood Memorial Hospital and was due to be released March 27 but succumbed to a heart attack Monday evening, March 26. This is the second time in nine weeks that Mr. Carles lost a loved one, losing his wife of just six weeks in a fatal accident while on their honeymoon. Mrs. Carles is at the Place Funeral Home and will be buried in the Los Gatos Cemetery this week. Many friends at Donner are extending their sympathies to this lonely man who is recuperating himself from the accident nine weeks ago.

I had a call from Milla Johnson last week and she is leaving her Los Altos home on April 26 to spend a few days at Donner Lake. She is helping the Auxiliary of the Donner Lake Volunteer Fire Department put on their skit for the Fire-ette's show on April 27 and 28. From all reports, this should be quite a show as 13 service clubs are participating. I chatted with Virginia Paddock this week and she said the fire departments at Tahoe and Kings Beach are planning skits, too. It will be held at the old Elementary School in Truckee and it sounds like fun.

A lot of you people have been asking me where to register for voting. There is just one place and that is at the Truckee Public Utility office in Truckee. The deadline is April 16 and Eve Hallet suggested that you not wait until the last day to register. If you do not register before that date, you will not be allowed to vote in the primary election in June or the general election in the fall. It is too late to register for the school bond election next month, but for goodness sake, be a good citizen, register and vote.

SUMMIT SCENE

pected to act like a great big happy family. From all walks of life. All kinds of different temperaments. The introvert. The extrovert. The shy, the gregarious. The overbearing, the "knuckle under type." And here under one roof—and there under another—this "new family" must act as a coordinating whole. When papas and mamas very often cannot handle their own close knit little circle—htink of the finesse and the patience and the forebearance that must be exercised to accomplish this business of operating a resort. So when the end of the season approaches—both operator and crew are painted "pretty thin" and so that worst of bugaboos—"cabin fever" sets in. We note our crew gazing out of the window as the snow melts therefrom. We know that they are dreaming of grass and flowers. But hang on kids — ours and everybody elses. You'll be just as glad to "come home" next season as you are glad to "go south with the birds" this end of seasons.

We just finished "entertaining" again our group from Sacramento known as the P.W.P.'s—Parents Without Partners. Had a chance to talk to the chairman of the group this year. This is really quite a fabulous organization—viewing it from the chairman's eyes. "Kids with but one parent—become maladjusted and believe that they are in a class all by themselves" says Dorothea Castle, the chairman. "Our group is a national group. We in the Sacramento Chapter are most active. We arrange outings—such as this snow outing—so that these children can get together and thereby discover that their lot is not the only lonely lot." Am not sure but believe that the organization is for widows, widowers as well as the divorced.

And we peek in the windows of Donner Summit Lodge—(because we can't get in the door) and see the Yuba Sutter Ski Club at their annual banquet. And we hear that the center piece will be a replica of a trophy made out of ice—yet. That Fran Merlyn (the chef) sure comes up with some cute ideas.

And now we'll drop this in the mail bag and hie ourselves to Sacramento to spend a little time at the state library. Hah.

Finally—Fran

MARDI GRAS FUNDS GO TO SCHOLARSHIP

TAHE CITY—The Truckee Tahoe High School Scholarship Fund was enriched recently by a generous gift from the Tahoe Squaws. The Squaws presented the proceeds from their recent "Mardi Gras" to the scholarship fund at a ceremony held at a dinner social meeting held at Bacchi's Inn in Lake Forest on March 21. Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. Jim Brehler.

DIVOT-DIGGERS

By BETTY KIELHOFER

Greetings, strangers. With all this beautiful sunshine, our heads are turning once again in a southerly direction, namely toward the Shadow Valley Golf Course.

As for myself, I can't conceive of anything nicer than walking down those soft, green fairways, feeling the warm sunshine penetrating your winter-whitened skin, listening to the distant chirping of little birds flitting through the trees. It's honestly like being in another town, on vacation, or just something new. No matter how many times you go up, it always seems fresh and exciting. You don't realize it until the day is over that you haven't had one worrisome thought or care.

There's just nothing like it—the Country Club is in the process of re-activating, starting off with election of officers next Monday evening. The meeting will be held at the new upstairs addition of the fire house at 8 p. m. and we're all hoping for a record turnout. A nomination committee consisting of Francis Longo, Ametta Firpo and Zeph Rose have been busier than bees working up a fine list of tentative officers which they will submit from the floor.

The membership fees for 1962 are due as of this month and we're hopeful of getting more than the 139 we had last season. The club should be bigger and better than ever now that most of the wrinkles are out although I hardly see how it could be more fun than last year. It is only $5 per person, entitling you to join in all the activities, which include dances, barbecues, weekly scotch-foursomes, skating parties and many more things, not to mention the golf tournaments.

We were even able to have a post-season dinner-dance at Lawton's free of charge to members, so everyone certainly got their money's worth.

What more could you ask? . . . You know, this has been a long, hard winter for most . . . we should all attempt to enjoy ourselves to the fullest this summer . . . just remember this. You do not have to golf to join the Country Club . . . if you like any type of recreation at all, this is the club to join . . . All the members are most receptive to new ideas as long as it's fun.

So—if you have good ideas, want new companionship or you're bored with life, come on over Monday night and join us—the young, the old, or middle aged. We'll guarantee you won't be sorry.

PAUL LEAKE

WOODLAND — Paul Leake announced that he will ask the third district to re-elect him to the state board of equalization.

He made it clear that he will adhere to his policy of refusing contributions. "The people got the message before and they'll again approve a no-strings-attached campaign," Leake said.

Appointed to the board in 1952 by Republican Governor Earl Warren, Leake, a Democrat, has been elected twice—in 1954 and 1958. Four years ago he had no opposition. In his only election contest, he carried all 25 counties and 91 per cent of the precincts in his district.

The third district includes Marin, Sonoma, Solano, Butte, Humboldt, Shasta, Yolo, Napa, Mendocino, Lake, Del Norte, Siskiyou, Lassen, Modoc, Colusa, El Dorado, Glenn, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sutter, Tehama, Trinity, Yuba and Sierra.

The records show that in the last three years upwards of $350,000 has been slashed by Leake from the third district's yearly operating costs.

No longer responsible for enforcing the liquor laws, the board now is concentrating on the job for which it was originally created — that of administering the state's tax revenue. It is accountable annually for some $1¼ billion in addition to $200 million from the Bradley-Burns sales and use taxes.

Leake has always insisted that the board function on a nonpartisan basis.
